

STRIKE COMMISSION.

The Railroads' Side of the Recent Labor War.

THE ADVANTAGES OF PULLMAN.

Residence in That Town Much More Desirable Than Where Workmen Usually Reside—No Evidence Thus Far to Connect Strikers with Violence.

CHICAGO, Aug. 23.—At yesterday's session of the national labor commission Chairman Wright announced that the majority of witnesses for labor had been heard, and that the railroads and Pullman company would now be allowed to present their side of the case.

The first witness was Frank W. T. Glover, a Chicago real estate agent. Mr. Glover deals in property at Kensington, the suburb adjoining the town of Pullman. He said from an outside inspection of the Pullman houses—he had never been inside of them—they were much more inviting than the ones rented by him in Kensington for $12 a month. "If I were a poor man," said Mr. Glover, "and had a family I should prefer to live in Pullman. The surroundings are so beautiful, and the place so moral, I would rather pay $2 or $3 a month more for the same accommodations in Pullman."

Paul Herries, an employee of the Pullman company, testified that he thought his residence of nine rooms in Pullman was cheap at $5 a month. He would not live in Kensington under any circumstances on account of the offensive sewers. He thought that if the Pullman employees had let whiskey and beer alone they would not have had nearly so much distress.

T. B. Johnston testified to the comparative value of property in Pullman, Kensington and Roseland. He could get houses for less money in Roseland or Kensington, he said, but he did not get as good a house for the money as in Pullman. The Pullman employees were temperate for the most part, and of economical habits.

William McKay, a reporter, testified that he had been present at many labor meetings and had never heard strike leaders counsel violence.

Benjamin Atwell, another reporter, followed. He had seen no real violence done by railroad employees. He had heard, he said, strikers counsel their companions during the trouble at Blue Island not to commit overt acts.

A. Laugren, an employee of the Pullman company for the last thirteen years, testified that in all his years of service for the company he had no complaint as to wages or treatment. He advised against the strike, although he was a member of the union, and had gone back to work when the opportunity offered, surrendering his membership in the union, and signing a contract to keep out of it.

"We draw large wages for the first seven or eight years," he said, "and did well. A year ago in June I was making $125 a day. We used to make as much as $200 per week, but they cut it down and now no one can make more than $150, even if he worked very hard."

Michael J. Zera appeared next with a speech and a display of reports from all over the country during the strike. He made a fine display of bright eyes, clean-cut features, and a born "latency" of a man of these free men. He said that the strike was the only time he saw a man work by day, the rest of the time he was idle.

The witness, a man of 35, tried to hear Chief of Police from a vantage point, and was called to attention for two witnesses when the chief failed to hear. He said, "I heard through his private secretary that he would appear before the commission today to tell what he knows of the nature of the rioting and the efforts made to prevent it."

Major Hopkins, Fire Chief Swente and other city officials have also been summoned, and Governor Algiel will probably be called upon. The commissioners refuse to say whether or not Mr. Pullman will testify.

Saved from Death by Drowning.

CAMP MAY, Aug. 23.—Thomas F. Byrnes, a lawyer and prominent Democrat of Philadelphia, saved State Comptroller Hancock, of New Jersey; ex-Congress Clerk Barker Gummere, of Newark, and ex-Postmaster William S. Yard, of Trenton, from drowning in this city last night. The three gentlemen, while bathing, drifted beyond their depth and called for help. Mr. Byrnes immediately swam out to them with a rope and fastened two of the bathers to it, they being quickly drawn ashore. Meanwhile a boat had been manned by volunteers and picked up the third man.

Good News.

No other medicine in the world was ever given such a test of its curative qualities, as Otto's Cure. Thousands of bottles of this great German remedy are being distributed FREE OF CHARGE, by druggists in this country, to those afflicted with Consumption, Asthma, Croup, severe Coughs, Pneumonia and all Throat and Lung diseases, giving the people proof that Otto's Cure will cure them and that it is the grandest triumph of Medical science. Rheumatism Cured in a Day.

"Mystic Cure" for Rheumatism and Neuralgia radically cures in one to three days. Its action upon the system is remarkable and mysterious. It removes at once the cause, and the disease immediately disappears. The first dose greatly benefits. Seventy-five cents. Sold by J. E. Mills, druggist, Middletown.

THE NEW BEDFORD STRIKE.

Six Mills to Start Up at the Old Rate on Monday Next.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Aug. 23.—The strike situation has undergone no material change. All the mills remain closed, and both sides seem to be as determined as ever. Secretary Ross, of the Spinners' union, and Treasurer Howland had a conference yesterday at which it was determined that the Howland mills will be opened next Monday. This includes the Howland, Hotch and New Bedford Manufacturing companies—six mills in all.

Mr. Howland is being bitterly criticized by the other manufacturers. He is accused of unfair conduct, inasmuch as he was represented at the meeting of the trustees by the agent of his mills, Byron F. Card, and has not carried out the agreement of that meeting. Messrs. Howland and Card state that Mr. Howland knew nothing of the meeting until long after it was over; that Card attended it at the request of the trustees, but he had no vote and that he agreed to post the notice of reduction subject to Mr. Howland's action on his return. The latter on his return to the city rescinded the notice.

Mayor Brownell has called a conference of the manufacturers and operatives for this evening. The labor leaders are well pleased at the prospect of a conference, and have assured Mayor Brownell that if a settlement is shown to be essential they will accept it and go back to work. The leading mill men decline to say whether or not they will attend the conference.

Rosewater Boils Majors' Nomination.

OMAHA, Neb., Aug. 23.—The Republican convention yesterday nominated the following ticket: For governor, Thomas M. Majors; lieutenant governor, R. E. Moore; secretary of state, J. A. Piper; auditor, Eugene Moore; state treasurer, Joseph S. Bartley; superintendent of public instruction, H. H. Corbett; attorney general, A. S. Churchill; commissioner of public lands and buildings, H. C. Russell. A letter was read from Mr. E. Rosewater tendering his resignation as a member of the national committee, saying: "You have nominated for governor a man who has been branded as an accessory to forgery and perjury by a Republican congressional committee." The resignation was accepted and Hon. John M. Thurston, of Omaha, elected to the vacancy.

Arrested for Murder Committed in 1890.

SEBASTIAN, Kan., Aug. 23.—After a lapse of four years the cowardly murderer of Johnny Frazer, a cattle dealer of this county, have been captured. They are all prominent farmers or business men living in this vicinity, and the news of their arrest has caused a sensation. Their names are: Theodore F. Cox, Marc McBe, William Lycker, J. H. and Elmer Cox. Frazer was killed because he imported a lot of Texas cattle and refused to remove them in deference to the neighbors' fear of Texas fever.

Alix and Directum to Race.

PORTLAND, Me., Aug. 23.—The owner of Alix, who at Washington park, Chicago, on Tuesday trotted a mile in 2:05 1/4, telegraphed President Barnham, of the Krazy track, that if a race could be arranged between Alix and Directum for a purse of $10,000 he would bring Alix here. Barnham agreed to a $10,000 purse, and Directum's owner has also agreed to the terms. The race will come off about Sept. 29.

Indians Becoming Troublesome.

EL PASO, O. T., Aug. 23.—Reliable information has reached here that the Kiowa and Comanche Indians are becoming alarmingly troublesome because the money, to the amount of $25,000, due them by the government for loss of their country has not been paid them. It has been due them for several months and they are unable to get a dollar. As a result the Indians are assuming a warlike attitude.

Seeking Taylor's Removal.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23.—The civil-service commission has been investigating for some little time back charges alleging that C. H. J. Taylor, the recorder of deeds of the District of Columbia, had been soliciting campaign funds from government employees, and will within the next two days submit a report to the president. It is understood that they will recommend Taylor's removal from office.

Tennessee's Republican Leader.

NASHVILLE, Aug. 23.—The Republican convention at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon nominated H. Clay Evans for governor on the first ballot. He was named over J. W. Baker by fifty majority. The nominee is an ex-federal soldier, an ex-member of congress, a shrewd, well posted politician and an able debater, and the campaign is expected to be an aggressive one.

The Discovery Saved His Life.

Mr. G. Oallouette, Druggist, Beaverville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with LaGrippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it." Get a free trial bottle at McMonagle and Rogers' Drug Store.

DEATH AT A CROSSING.

Five Persons Run Down by a Train and Instantly Killed.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Aug. 23.—As the north-bound express train of the Paducah, Tennessee and Alabama railway was nearing Hazel, Ky., it struck a wagon loaded with people, instantly killing five of the occupants and wounding one. The killed are Jennie and Lillie Ray, aged 16 and 20; E. Tobias Ray and the Misses Harmon, two sisters.

John Ray was thrown over a hundred feet and seriously injured. The parties were crossing the railroad track as the train came thundering down on them, and the team, becoming frightened at the alarm of the whistle, ran into a cattle guard.

Important Electric Deal.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 23.—The Manufacturers' Record announces the closing of a big deal which promises to have an important influence upon electric operations in this country. The Westinghouse Electric company, of Baltimore, which has a capital stock of $1,000,000, has sold out to the Fort Wayne Electric company, of Fort Wayne, Ind. This deal put the Fort Wayne company in control of patents which it is said are being infringed by other electric manufacturers, and the Fort Wayne company will, it is said, immediately begin an active fight upon all who are reported as infringing its patents.

The Coming Pacer of the Age.

CHICAGO, Aug. 23.—The match between the 2-year-old pacers Directum and Carbonate, at Washington park yesterday afternoon, proved no contest at all, except the effort that Directum made to beat the record time. Carbonate was beaten an eighth of a mile the first heat, thus preventing the necessity of a second heat. There was some disagreement among the timers, but finally 2:12 was hung off. One of them thought it less. This confirms the impression that Directum is the coming pacer of the age.

Drowned in a Montana Mine.

BUTTE, Mont., Aug. 23.—Michael Brady, James Morgan and Joseph Curry were drowned in a drift in the Glangarry mine. An abandoned mine adjoins the property on the east. The shaft of the old workings was filled with water, and the three unconsciously tapped it at a depth of 100 feet in the workings of the Glangarry. The water rushed in with great force and engulfed the men before they could escape. Several other miners had narrow escapes.

A Beauty Tries Suicide.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Aug. 23.—Sadie Junk, a woman whose career has been a checkered one for some years, swallowed laudanum before a group of several people in her house, in sister's ally, yesterday afternoon. The scene was a dramatic one, and the woman will die. She was once a favorite and well known beauty. Jealousy of her lover, William Scott, is the cause of her act.

Murder Suspected.

LEXINGTON, Mass., Aug. 23.—Conrad Juul, a prominent contractor and engineer, was found unconscious near the water works here with a bullet wound in his head and a revolver by his side. It is thought that Mr. Juul had trouble with one of his Italian workmen, and that he was shot in revenge. Juul died a few hours after he was found.

A Switchman's Terrible Death.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Aug. 23.—Charles Peyton, a switchman in the Chesapeake and Ohio yards, who went between two cars to make a coupling, met with a horrible death. He did not see a bar that had become loosened and projected so that it went entirely through his head, suspending the body while the train moved two car lengths.

Slight Improvement in the Iron Trade.

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—The Iron Age of today says: "There is the expected general improvement in the iron trade has materialized only to a very modest extent. In some lines and in some localities there has been a somewhat larger demand, but its volume is far from being such as to make the slightest impression upon prices."

Women say that a meal tastes better when prepared by some one else, and that is just the reason why Simmons Liver Regulator is in such favor. It is already prepared in liquid and powder form. You don't need to make a tea. Another reason for this favor is that Simmons Regulator is better than Pills for Biliousness, Sick Headache, Constipation and Indigestion. Sample package powder, 25 cents.

CLEVELAND AT WASHINGTON.

The President Greatly Benefited by His Trip to Gray Gables.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23.—President Cleveland returned to Washington at 8:30 last night from his few days' rest at Gray Gables. He was accompanied by Secretary Lamont, who met him at New York, and by Dr. O'Reilly, who went away from Washington with him. The fact that Mr. Cleveland was expected was generally known, and a good sized crowd was at the Pennsylvania railroad station when the train rolled in. Private Secretary Thurber was on hand with an open carriage from the White House, and as the party descended from the train he escorted them through the station proper, going out by way of the ladies' entrance. The president engaged in a moment's conversation with one of the messengers who came down to attend to Secretary Lamont's baggage, and then stepped into his carriage, and with Mr. Thurber drove off to the White House. Dr. O'Reilly shared Secretary Lamont's carriage. So far as his appearance can indicate the president has evidently profited by his short trip.

An effort was made last night to obtain some information as to what course the president is likely to pursue with reference to the tariff bill, but not the least intimation thereof could be obtained either at the White House or from the members of the cabinet.

Private Secretary Thurber said that the president had been very much benefited by his trip to Gray Gables.

Going to China to be Beheaded.

CHICAGO, Aug. 23.—Three Chinese sat in a cell in the Harrison street jail yesterday meditating on death. They were Mock Coon, Mock Shen and Lum Pick Hop. Only a few weeks ago these three men were in China, soldiers in the militia branch of the military service. Then mutterings of war with Japan were heard, and they left China and landed at Vancouver, B. C. The United States was their mecca, but federal officers caught them when they crossed the line at Plattsburg, N. Y., in defiance of the Chinese exclusion act. They will be shipped back to China, and as deserters, death will be their portion when they arrive in their native land.

Will Probably Lose His Arm.

VICTOR, Colo., Aug. 23.—W. O. Wirt, of Council Bluffs, was shot from ambush in both arms when riding in Cripple Creek Tuesday night, will probably lose his left arm. There is no doubt that the attacking party mistook Wirt and his traveling companion for Sheriff Bowers and a deputy who had been hunting for some of the desperadoes that infest this district. James Drury has been arrested on suspicion of having been one of the party. He was active in the strike, and is said to be a Molly Maguire.

Heavy Internal Revenue Receipts.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23.—Receipts from internal revenue sources continue to be abnormally large, with the very prospect of continuing so until the new tariff bill goes into effect. During the last seven working days from Aug. 15 the receipts have reached the unprecedented sum of $11,000,122, and it is confidently expected that by next Saturday at midnight, when the new act will become operative, the aggregate receipts for the preceding ten days will have reached $15,000,000.

Her Clothing Fired by a Spark.

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 23.—Miss Edith S. Clark, daughter of a Pittsburgh bank official, was waiting near the Fort Wayne railroad at Clifton when a spark from a locomotive set fire to her clothing. In a moment she was enveloped in flames. Crazed by fright and pain she rushed across the tracks and sprang into the Ohio river, from which she was rescued with difficulty. She is in a very serious condition, but may recover.

Altoona's Missing Cashier.

ALTOONA, Pa., Aug. 23.—A gentleman in this city received a telegram today from a friend in Philadelphia saying that this friend had seen Cashier Gardner, of the defunct Second National bank, on the street in that city yesterday. The source of the information is reliable, and it is believed that Gardner's presence there is due to the fact that the woman with whom his name is connected is lying ill in a Philadelphia hospital.

Both Man and Horse Cremated.

ARROW, O., Aug. 23.—The explosion of a dynamite cartridge in the cylinder of a threshing machine on the farm of George Witmer caused a fire which destroyed the large barn and several thousand bushels of grain. Michael Myers, of Newark, went into the barn to save the horses. He mounted one, but the animal refused to move, and he and the beast were burned to death. Andrew and Rollins Witmer were seriously burned.

A Baby's Life Saved.

WALTON, N. Y., April 14, 1894.—When my baby was six months old she was taken very badly with diarrhoea. A doctor came every day for a week. Baby got worse, until she could notice nothing at all. I got so worried I called on our druggists and he recommended Dr. Hand's Diarrhoea Mixture. I got it and just one-half a bottle cured my baby and saved her life.

EZETA STILL AT SEA.

Hitch in the Arrangements for the Fugitive's Arrest.

A CONFLICT OF AUTHORITIES.

The United States Marshal, Who Represents the State Department, Has No Authority to Demand the Services of a Government Vessel.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 23.—The singular international complications involving the liberty of General Ezeta and his fellow refugees, which has been prolific of opera bouffe sensation, developed a new tinge of conflicting authority yesterday. Warrants were finally issued for the arrest of the refugees, but the local federal authorities got tangled up in government tape and the warrants could not be served.

United States Marshal Baldwin, armed with the authority of the federal courts, set out to have the refugees brought within the jurisdiction of the law, but he ran up against Captain Hawsion, commanding Mare Island navy yard, who declared he had no legal authority to furnish transportation for the marshal, and he refused to place that official on the Bennington. Without the assistance of the navy department the marshal could not reach the gunboat. The law allows the marshal but $2 for serving each warrant, and under this compensation he could not afford to hire a tugboat. Furthermore, Captain Thomas, of the Bennington, has strict orders to receive no one on board his ship but accredited naval officers from Mare Island.

Under these conditions the United States marshal must have the assistance of the naval authorities if he shall ever arrest the culprits of whom he is in pursuit. The marshal and Captain Howison are in telegraphic communication with their superior officers at Washington, and if they succeed in establishing harmony between the departments of the governments which they represent it is probable that the navy department will bring the refugees into the United States.

Judge Morrow, of the United States district court, issued the warrants for the arrest of the refugees. Yesterday the written authority from Secretary of State Gresham was placed in the hands of Judge Morrow by Consul Calderon, the San Salvadoran representative at this port.

The papers call for the extradition of Antonio Ezeta, Leon Bolanos, E. Jacinto Calchoe, Juan Cienfuegos and Florencio Bustamante. The accused are charged with being criminals and fugitives from justice. It is charged that on June 3, 1894, on the public road leading from the town of New Salvador to La Libertad, one Thomas Cammas, a teamster who was driving along the road, was shot and murdered by Antonio Ezeta and Juan Cienfuegos. Ezeta and his companions were then fleeing from their pursuers.

It is also charged that on June 4 Ezeta entered the International Bank of El Salvador and Nicaragua and assaulted Rose Reus and Ernesto Amador and robbed the bank of $42,304. Cienfuegos is also charged with an attempt to murder Andres Amaya. Bolanos and Bustamante are charged with the crime of murder for the killing of four persons on May 23 in a gulch of Las Vigas, Primavera.

Another complaint charges the five refugees with strangling Casimiro Henrique to death in the village of Coateguayo on June 15.

General Antonio Ezeta is engaged to marry Miss Ida Dent Wright, an American girl. About a year ago, while Miss Wright was living in Salvador, General Rafael Gutierrez and others started a revolution to overthrow the Ezeta government. Gutierrez and nearly a score of other conspirators were captured and sentenced to death. The day they were sentenced Miss Wright became the betrothed of General Ezeta and pleaded so hard for the lives of the conspirators that they were set free. Now Gutierrez is president of Salvador, and if he succeeds in inducing the United States to surrender the fugitive he will be executed in short order.

Hood's Has Wrought Wonders.

"Hood's Sarsaparilla has wrought wonders with me. I have had the grip every spring for three years and last spring it left me with a cough and I could hardly walk. I used two bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla and was cured. In fact, Hood's Sarsaparilla is our cure all and it is the best blood purifier I know of." William D. Huntley, Mexico, N.Y.

MR. OWENS' CANVASS.

His Fight for the Nomination Sought by Mr. Breckinridge.

A MOST BRILLIANT DENUNCIATION

Judge Kinkead, for Years a Neighbor of the Kentucky Orator, Bitterly Assailed the Congressman in a Speech Delivered Before Twenty Thousand People.

LEXINGTON, Aug. 23.—Twenty thousand people, the flower of Ashland congressional district, attended the Owens barbecue here yesterday. Preparations had been made to entertain 15,000 and the provisions fell far short of supplying all. The speakers were Hon. W. G. Owens, Hon. G. W. Lockhart, of Bourbon county; Judge George B. Kinkead; Judge Jere R. Morton and Professor C. F. N. Albert, of Lexington. There were 5,000 ladies present, and the affair was a magnificent spectacle of the time honored Ashland district against being longer represented in congress by W. C. Breckinridge.

The speeches all teemed with the most scathing denunciations of Breckinridge and were the most sensational yet spoken against him. Judge Kinkead, for years a neighbor of Breckinridge, was exceptionally severe in appealing for Mrs. Blackburn's defense and Breckinridge's retirement. He said:

"Breckinridge declares his opponents are throwing stones at him made of lies, yet he does not tell what lies are being told. He has been charged with the most heinous offenses in public, but he has not denied them. How absurd for Colonel Breckinridge to charge that his opponents are lying about him. Review the long list of crimes, admitted and proved, which during his life made up his character. Think for a moment of Colonel Breckinridge inflamed with virtuous indignation at the utterances of a lie.

"Review the life that he himself discloses. Picture the chosen orator, enveloped in a cloak of sanctity, as he appears through the long series of years before august religious orders. See him again in the roll of morality and virtue, as he points the true course to the little inmates of the Female seminary, and follow him through nine long years of secret infamy and vice. Meet him, a husband and a father, and let him conduct you, as he does in his testimony, from the home he should have guarded to the brothel he should have shunned.

"See him land in the city of his home and go with him through the disgusting details of his own testimony in that first visit with his Egyptian to that brothel in this town. With what brazen forehead did he leave this place and seek the society of his home, and of what material is the fibre of his heart that, hastening through his meal, he hid himself again to the degrading meeting. Hypocrisy herself must have turned pale as she viewed the daring votary at her shrine. See him again as he introduced his mistress into the school in which your little children are taught, and toward which he occupied at that time the relation of trustee."

Watch Again a Winner.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 23.—For the fifth consecutive time Robert A. Welch, by defeating Leonard Finletter, won the Rivation challenge plate, and the match between these two crack shots of the Rivation Gun club proved to be the most exciting that has yet been shot on the Rivation grounds. Before they had shot at a dozen birds Finletter had a lead of two birds, and he maintained this lead until the eighty-first round, when Finletter missed, and at the end of the eighty-third round the score was tied. Finletter missed his eighty-fifth bird when gave Welch the lead for the first time during the contest, and the latter was never headed, winning the match by one bird, thus making the sixth time that the plate was won by one bird. The score: Welch, 91; Finletter, 90.

The South Jersey Road Bankrupt.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 23.—The South Jersey railroad, which only two months ago opened its line to Cape May, yesterday passed into the hands of a receiver, Francis J. Gowan being appointed. The action is a friendly one, being in accordance with an agreement adopted last Saturday at a meeting of the largest creditors. The urgent unsecured indebtedness is $85,000, which sum includes wages due employees.

This remedy is becoming so well known and so popular as to need a special mention. All who have used Electric Bitters sing the same song of praise.—A purer medicine does not exist and it is guaranteed to do all that is claimed. Electric Bitters will cure all diseases of the liver and kidneys, will remove Pimples, Boils, salt rheum and other affections caused by impure blood.—Will drive Malaria from the system and prevent as well as cure all Malarial fevers.—For cure of headache, Constipation, and Indigestion try Electric Bitters. Entire satisfaction guaranteed, or money refunded.—Price 50c. and $1.00 per bottle at McMonagle & Rogers Drug store.

The Puzzle Solved.

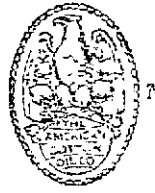

Perhaps no local disease has puzzled and baffled the medical profession more than nasal catarrh. While not immediately fatal it is among the most nauseous and disgusting of the flesh is heir to, and the records show very few or no cases of radical cure of chronic catarrh by any of the many modes of treatment until the introduction of Ely's Cream Balm a few years ago. The success of this preparation has been most gratifying and surprising. No druggist is without it.

The WREN in Business

It is characteristic of the Wren that it will sneak in and occupy the nest made by another bird, in preference to building one of its own. This same trait is often seen in business. It is shown by the imitators of

COTTOLENE

No sooner has the wonderful merit of this new vegetable shortening, so much better than lard, created for it a remarkable sale and popularity, than the business wrens are ready to move upon the market with many worthless counterfeits. Any housekeeper can be easily and cheaply convinced of the value of COTTOLENE by simply giving it a trial. They will then be unwilling to go back to lard, or go down to fraudulent imitations.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50 cent bottles, but is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

The Illinois state miners' convention at Springfield adopted the Columbus scale for mining coal in central and southern Illinois, which is a reduction of 10 per cent.

An Anti-Lynching League.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 23.—An anti-lynching organization was formed in this city yesterday by the prominent colored citizens. The organization is the result of the agitation by Miss Ida Wells, the young colored woman, who has recently been lecturing in England. The committee on permanent organization is as follows: President, George Cable; secretary, Mrs. William Perry; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Ladona Williams. All the colored ministers were present and were elected vice presidents.

To Test the Dispensary Law.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Aug. 23.—The attorney general of the state and the city of Aiken have agreed to take Judge Aldrich's decision and make a test of the dispensary law before the supreme court. The chief justice has been requested to call an extra session of the court, and he will probably do so in a day or two. An early decision is expected.

Again the Gasoline Stove.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Aug. 23.—With her 9-month-old babe in her arms and Ethel, a 3-year-old, clinging to her skirts Mrs. Harry Sears attempted to light a gasoline stove, with the usual result. The baby was burned to death, and the mother and little girl so terribly burned that neither can survive.

A MYSTERIOUS CONVICT.

He Conceals His Identity, but Not His Brilliant Accomplishments.

"Who is Hogan?" is a question which has troubled prison officers at the southern Illinois penitentiary for years. Hogan is the brightest convict, intellectually, in the prison and is one of the most valuable because of his versatility. Interest in Hogan has increased materially since Governor Altgeld, a few days ago, commuted his sentence from 48 to 21 years, and on next Christmas eve Hogan will transplant his talents to more congenial surroundings.

Thomas Hogan, "Peggy" Ryan and a man named Pritchard were beating their way across the country in 1873, and one day in September they boarded a Chicago and Alton freight train in Greene county, near Carrollton, and found several other tramps in possession. A fight ensued. During the melee one of the tramps was thrown from or fell off the train and was killed. Hogan, Ryan and Pritchard were arrested for murder. They were quickly disposed of at the rate of 48 years each in the penitentiary.

The prison officers soon recognized Hogan's superior talents and placed him where he could render valuable service. He took a deep and intelligent interest in every duty assigned to him and was very quiet, orderly and neat in everything he did. He never gave up a word as to his parents, relatives or home. He never wrote a letter, except to his lawyer, or received one, but it is confidently believed that Hogan is highly connected. He is a college graduate.

Said Warden Baker, speaking of Hogan: "Do we want a translation from the Greek or Latin inscription, Hogan does it. If any piece of copy is to be written in a copper plate hand, Hogan does it in the most elegant manner. If we require a trial balance made, Hogan makes it. He is filled with accurate information upon all sorts of subjects and makes all kinds of calculations with ease, yet he never volunteers to say a word unless asked. He appears to be contented and applies himself diligently to his duties. He is one of the best prisoners we have."

A correspondent met Hogan in the office the other day and was greeted by a cordial handshake. "Yes, I am very glad I am going out," he said. "I have been here 21 years and am anxious for a change. I have had some very warm friends here during that time among the officers, whom I shall be pleased to see again." And he led the conversation away from himself as if he wished to avoid it.—Chicago Correspondent.

A COAT OF IRON RODS.

It Is Bullet Proof and May Revolutionize Heavy Armor Plating.

I have been stimulated by the recent trials of the bullet proof cuirass to try a few experiments on the subject. I will only mention one experiment, which I made this morning, assisted by several members of the Junior Scientific club here. It occurred to me that, if the energy of the bullet could be made to act at rather a large angle to its line of flight, its penetrating power would be diminished.

To effect this I arranged a number of soft iron rods—one-quarter inch in diameter and 5 inches long side by side and touching a piece of d. d. board. On these another layer was placed, so that one of the upper rods touched two of the under ones. A sheet of thin rubber one-sixteenth of an inch thick placed on this separated it from a similar combination attached to it at right angles, and the whole formed the target.

The rifle used was a Winchester, 22 bore, carrying a long bullet. At a distance of 20 feet the bullet penetrated five inches of hard pine with certainty, but when the bullet, fired at the same distance, hit my rod target it failed to penetrate even the first layer, but only drove the upper rods aside nearly at right angles to the line of flight. The next experiments will be made with heavier materials and larger shot. Possibly a similar arrangement, but of large steel cylinders, might make a satisfactory barrier to the shots of big guns.—F. J. Smith in London Nature.

Cullum and Proctor.

There is a brisk competition between Senator Proctor of Vermont and Senator Cullum of Illinois as to which of the two looks the more like Lincoln. For years the Illinois man has proudly claimed the distinction of most resembling the great martyred president of any one in Washington, and there has been none to dispute. But since Senator Proctor has shaved off his flowing hair there are a new set of Lincoln features in the senate chamber. The Vermont man is taller and thinner than his Illinois rival, and with his smooth face has a very marked Lincoln look, so much so that Cullum is in danger of losing his laurels. A poll of the senate may be necessary before the question is solved.—Washington Correspondent.

A German View of Us.

The Berlin National Zeitung last week published a curious leader on American affairs. The writer's conclusion was that the Anglo-Saxon and German races were losing their determining influence on the Union's affairs. The influx of Catholic Irish and Italians as well as other Latin elements, he thought, would at no very distant date lead to the crisis—fired now by some American politicians—in which the Union would be divided into three republics—one on the Pacific, another on the Atlantic and the third on the Gulf of Mexico.

Told Family Secrets.

Bjornson, the famous Norwegian author and poet, recently published a book, "New Stories," which has subjected him to much criticism. One of the stories is entitled "Ab-Aldon's Hair" and gives to the public, it is said, the secrets of a family whose name is known to all Norway. The poet has been condemned by many people, but the book is being read by every one.

A FAT MAN'S DEED.

Story of a Tragic Scene on a Brooklyn Trolley Car Which Might Be True.

A very stout old Brooklyn gentleman squeezed himself past two women on a Putnam avenue car and wedged in between one of them and a man at the other end of the seat. The fit was such a tight one that the women held their breaths and assumed a pancake appearance. At the corner where the car turns into Putnam avenue the fat man turned like a big turret and put up a chubby finger. The car stopped.

"Putnam avenue; Grand avenue and Fulton street!" shouted the conductor. The fat man settled back and resumed reading a newspaper, which he had dropped in his lap.

"Want to get out here?" asked the conductor, with his hand on the bell-ropes.

The fat man shook his head. There was an angry twang of the cord, and the trolley began to whiz.

At Nostrand avenue the chubby finger went up again. The car stopped. Nobody moved. Then the man who rings up the fares got angry.

"See here," he exclaimed after he had climbed along the step on the side of the car until he was opposite the fat man, "what do you mean by telling me to stop for when you don't want to get off?"

"Why," responded the mountain of flesh as coolly as such a mass of adipose could be cool, "the car jolts so that I couldn't read this paragraph, which is slightly blurred. I merely wanted to have the car stand still until I had finished it. That's all. Now, if you can go along slowly without jolting, I will be able to get along very nicely, but if I come across another bad line or two I'll put my hand back of my head, and you stop. It's too much trouble for me to turn around."

The conductor's eyes twinkled in the orbits. He placed his hand to his head and uttered a shriek after shriek. Reason was shattered. He had become cross eyed and insane.—New York Mail and Express.

ANCIENT LIGHTHOUSES.

Beacon Lights to Guide Mariners Coastal With the Earliest Commerce.

Beacon lights to guide the wave tossed mariner to a safe harbor must have been almost coeval with the earliest commerce. There is positive record that lighthouses were built in ancient times, though few evidences now remain to us from old writers or in crumbling ruins. This is not strange, for light towers, never the most stable architectural form, were exposed to the storms of sea and war.

The Greeks attributed the first lighthouses to Hercules, and he was considered the protector of voyagers. It is claimed by some that Homer refers to lighthouses in the nineteenth book of the "Iliad."

Virgil mentions a light on a temple to Apollo which, visible far out at sea, warned and guided mariners. The Colossus at Rhodes, erected about 280 B. C., is said to have shown a signal light from its uplifted hand.

The oldest towers known were built by the Libyans in lower Egypt. They were temples also, and the lightkeeper priests taught pilotage, hydrography and navigation. The famous tower on the isle of Pharos, at Alexandria, built about 255 B. C., is the first lighthouse of undoubted record. This tower, constructed by Sostratus, the architect, was square in plan, of great height and built in tiers. An open brazier at the top of the tower contained the fuel for the light. At Dover and Boulogne, on either side of the English channel, were ancient lighthouses built by the Romans. But the lighthouse at Corunna, Spain, built in the reign of Trajan and reconstructed in 1834, is believed to be the oldest existing lighthouse.—E. P. Adams in Cassin's Magazine.

The Drug Store Telephone.

"Accommodation bureaus are all right when they are conducted as such," said a west side druggist, "but the sign over my door was intended to inform the public that drugs were dispensed within and not information doled out or telephone messages delivered blocks away. I make no kick when stamps are asked for and the city directory consulted by people, but when they ring up the telephone and call me from my work to answer it and then want a message delivered to a friend living a long distance from the store only a certificate of membership in the Antiswearing club which I have pasted on the transmitter keeps me from uttering fancy language. This morning I was at the breakfast table and was called to the phone. I found it was a lady who patronized me about once a month. She didn't talk plainly and kept me guessing for 15 minutes what she was driving at. I discovered that she wanted me to tell her next door neighbor that she wouldn't be home to dinner and ask her to open a window of the house and for mercy sake feed the poor little cat." The telephone has been removed.—Buffalo Enquirer.

Angelo's Verdict.

Once a painter notorious for plagiarisms executed a historical picture in which every figure of importance was copied from some other artist, so that very little remained to himself. It was shown to Michael Angelo by a friend, who begged his opinion of it. "Excellent," said Angelo, "only, at the day of judgment, when all bodies will resume their own limbs again, I do not know what will become of that historical painting, for there will be nothing left of it."—San Francisco Argonaut.

STOCK AND PRODUCE MARKETS.

Closing Quotations of the New York and Philadelphia Exchanges.

New York, Aug. 23.—The share speculation today was rather irregular, advances and declines following each other with frequency, but the reaction as a rule were less than the gains, and consequently the trading resulted in the establishment of a higher range of values throughout the greater part of the list. Thomas was similarly attacked last Saturday but escaped.

THE PRESIDENT COMING TO MIDDLTOWN.

The Sick May Receive Medical Services Free of Charge.

The President and members of the European and American Staff of German, English, Irish, Scandinavian and American Doctors of New York city will be at the Russell House, Middletown, on Tuesday, August 28th, one day only. The sick and afflicted may consult them without charge during their stay.

If you are incurable they will tell you; therefore invalids must not take offense if they are rejected, as no case will be accepted unless there is a moral certainty of a cure being effected. These Doctors are graduates of the best universities of Europe and America; they are of the highest standing in the medical profession and have had unlimited experience in the treatment of all Chronic Diseases and Deformities. As the latest methods, instruments and appliances of the various schools of both the Old and the New World are familiar to and at the command of this staff of doctors, it is reasonable to believe that in ninety cases out of every hundred a cure can be effected, even when the patients have been given up as incurable by doctors who have had less experience. Do not be discouraged because your doctor cannot give you relief, or even if he tells you that you cannot get well, for it matters not what your disease may be, y. u. can consult the doctors free, and, if curable, they will treat you; if incurable, they will give you such advice as will tend to prolong life and afford you the greatest relief.

The doctor will visit Middletown one day each month. Office hours from 10 a. m. to 6 p. m.

THE MIDDLETOWN RACES.

Close and Interesting Contests Afford Fine Sport on the Second Day—The Success of the Meeting Assured—Today's Events.

The second day's racing at the Campbell track furnished some exciting sport and also some surprises, the greatest being the inability of Weed Wilkes to go better than 2:23½, the best time of the race. This horse was second by a nose at Buffalo last week in 2:12½.

The success of the meeting is assured and the Middletown Fair and Driving Park Association has earned for itself a place among the trotting associations of the State that will insure for it many entries of good horses at any meeting that it may hold in other years.

THE PACING RECORD.

The third heat of the 2:30 class pacing was taken by Royal Belle in 2:24½. The driver of Genevieve entered a complaint to the judges alleging that the driver of Royal Belle had flashed his whip in the face of Genevieve at the head of the stretch, causing the mare to leave her feet and lose the heat. No action was taken, although it was very apparent that the driver of Royal Belle used his whip in a manner scarcely in conformity with the popular idea of fair driving.

DRIVERS CHANGED ON WEED WILKES.

Weed Wilkes who sold a hot favorite prior to the race, could not seem to accustom himself to the turns of a half mile track, this being the first time he had ever been started on one. There was such a howl of dissatisfaction from the crowd upon the poor showing made by the horse that although he failed to save his distance in third heat, the judges decided to waive distance and allowed the horse to start in the fourth heat. Moore, the driver of Weed Wilkes, was called to the stand and questioned, and said he was driving the horse to the best of his ability. The judges, however, decided to substitute Mr. William Sargeant, of Goshen, as driver. That able driver, however, could not keep the horse on its feet on the turns and Royal Belle took the heat and the race in 2:25. Genevieve got second money, Kansas Wilkes third and Little Barefoot fourth.

The owner of the latter, Mr. C. R. Thomas, of New York, released a carrier pigeon from the grand stand at the conclusion of the race, and the pretty winged messenger started for its loft in New York with the news of the result.

THE 2:24 TROTTING RACE.

The 2:24 class trotting proved to be one of the finest exhibitions ever seen in this vicinity. Every heat was fought out for blood and at no time during the heats did day-light separate the first five horses as they passed under the wire.

That sterling old campaigner David P. took the fourth and fifth heats by close margins from that other well known trotter Daconia. Barry G. appeared to be tired and broke frequently in these heats, which were trotted in 2:24 and 2:26.

A FINE FINISH.

Only three horses were entitled to start in the sixth heat, Harry G., David P. and Shipman. The start was one of the prettiest ever seen, all three horses being on even terms, and they trotted the first half as a team of three abreast. Harry G. then left his feet, the break causing him to lose four or five lengths.

He trotted gamely, however, and at the head of the stretch started after David P. with a tremendous burst of speed. Decker, the driver of the latter horse, realized his danger too late, and before he could get David P. going again Harry G. had passed under the wire a winner by half a length. The fine finish pleased the crowd immensely, and the horse and driver were cheered to the echo. The time was the same as the previous heat, 2:26.

THE TWO-YEAR OLD COLT RACE.

The colt race was a repetition of the yearling race of the day before. There was only one horse in it, Legene, a big bay colt by Mountain Prince, dam Lady Falles, owned by Mr. J. A. Sheeley, of Ellenville. The talent having been dumped by Weed Wilkes plunged on Legene, running the first pool sold up to $25, while the field sold for but $8. Legene could have easily distanced the field with the possible exception of Lightmoon.

HOW THE WINNER WAS BRED.

While the race goes to an Ulster county horse, Orange county can claim a share of the honors, the dam having been at one time the property of Mr. James B. Crawford, of this city. He used her on his farm, and sold her to Ellenville parties for a nominal sum, as a work horse. She afterwards developed considerable speed, and all of her colts have developed into first class trotters.

The Middletown colts were a disappointment to many, Mr. Stratton's Crespo, getting third money. Mr. Wallick's Millionaire Jr., was fifth, and Mr. B. B. Williams' Trowbridge brought up the rear.

10 DAY'S EVENTS.

The attendance to-day is not as large as it was yesterday, but the grand stand, the stretch and the betting ring were well filled.

Among the prominent men present from out of town were Assemblyman Otis H. Cutler, of Rockland county; Assemblyman Kerr, of Newark and F. L. Whittier, of Suffern.

The judges were L. J. Martin, C. E. Bowman and Nate Hubbard.

THE 2:35 RACE.

Of the twenty entries in the race, twelve started, Litra Wilkes was a hot favorite in the pools, selling for $10 to $11 for the field.

Owing to the large field there was some delay in securing a start. At the first break-away Frank Hanford, who was driving Mary Hanford, broke one of his sulky tires and a delay of ten minutes was occasioned. In the second break-away Jeremiah, driven by Pettibone, balked and threw the driver out. The horse ran to the stable entrance and was cleverly stopped without injury, by some stable hands.

Jeremiah had the best of the start and led to the eighth pole, when Lady Fargo went to the front and was never headed, finishing in 2:28½, with the others strung out behind, Salute second, Red Wilton third and Leartus fourth.

The second heat of the 2:35 class was won by Salute, after a hard driving finish, from Litra Wilkes. The latter's gait is the nearest to a running horse's of any animal on the track. Lady Fargo was third and Mary Hanford fourth, and Quarter March, Gen. Tracy, Midget, Leartus and Victor came in in the order named.

KILLED ON THE O AND W.

A brakeman loses his life at Hancock. A young man, aged twenty-four years, named DeRay, an O. and W. brakeman, was killed, last evening, at Chemical Switch, near Hancock, on the O. and W. road.

The accident happened at 5:30, p. m. Mr. DeRay was using the brake wheel when the train took up slack, and was thrown to the track, and both legs were cut off at the thighs. The injured members were amputated, but DeRay died from the effects of shock a few minutes afterwards.

The young man lived at Apex, N. Y.

Married an Ex Convict.

Pearl Hill, the daughter of Dr. D. E. Hill, of Nanuet, Rockland county, surprised that community, Saturday, by marrying Ignatius B. Lowitz, who has been accused of many acts of crookedness and who was recently pardoned after serving three years of an eight years' sentence for assisting a young man in stealing $50,000 worth of securities from his uncle.

Real Estate Sales.

Gardner & McWilliams, real estate agents, have sold for B. F. Low, his house and lot on Royce avenue, to George S. Hutchison.

Through the same agency, L. V. Sinsbaugh has sold his lot on Highland avenue, adjoining above premises, to Mr. Hutchison.

A Harvest for the Hotels.

The hotels in this city are profiting by the large crowds of horsemen from out of town who are in attendance at the races. The Russell House, yesterday, entertained 250 guests at dinner and 175 at supper.

Two Boys Drowned at Ellenville.

Eddie Purdy, aged twelve, and Preston Kuhlman, aged eight years, son of John Kuhlman, the brewer, of Ellenville, were drowned in the canal at that place, while swimming, yesterday afternoon.

Sale of the Port Jervis Gas Works.

A Maine syndicate, represented by Mr. Duncan, of Portland, yesterday, purchased the Port Jervis gas works. They will take possession Sept. 1st.

INCIDENTS AND HAPPENINGS IN GOSHEN.

The Colored Choral Union Concert—Large Attendance on the Races Assured—Republican Caucus—Home Again.

From our Regular Correspondent.

The concert and entertainment by the Goshen Colored Choral Union at Music Hall, last evening, was largely attended. The long programme was well rendered and some of the numbers were uproariously applauded. Messrs. Green, Mines and Hicks made a decided hit in their comicalities. Mr. John True was the recipient of a handsome floral piece for his rendition of "Down on the Farm." Other parts were well taken.

The indications are that the Goshen races will be very largely attended from all parts of the county, as wherever a person may be he hears the splendid entry list of the association spoken of, and there seems a general determination to attend.

The date of the Republican caucus is Saturday, Sept. 1st, instead of Friday, as first mentioned.

Rev. Mr. White will again occupy his pulpit in the M. E. Church, Sunday, after a month's vacation.

Band concert, to-night. Only one more before the close of the season.

THE MERCHANTS' CLAM BAKE.

A Good Bake and Well Served, But Probably the Last at the Manor.

The clam bake at Livingston Manor, yesterday, was a good one and well served, everybody as far as we have learned being entirely satisfied.

Most of the Middletowners returned on the first special, which arrived at 7:45, but some remained for the evening bake and did not get home until about midnight.

The general impression seems to be that this is about the last bake that will be held so far away from home.

People want to patronize the conductors and the merchants, but do not care to be so long on the way to and from the bake as they are required to be if held at Liberty or the Manor. The opening of Midway Park will give our people the opportunity of attending bakes at considerable less expense than heretofore.

A CHANCE FOR AN OUTING.

Rhode Island Clam Bake at High Point.

A genuine old-fashioned Rhode Island clam bake will be given at the Inn at High Point on Friday, Aug. 31st. There will be dancing, etc., during the daytime at the pavilion, with music by the Musical Magnet orchestra. In the evening a Venetian carnival will be given and a flotilla of illuminated boats will sail on Lake Marcia. Colored fires will be burned along the shores of the lake.

The affair will be under competent management and will be first class in every respect. The bake will be under the supervision of Mr. Joseph Harding, of Port Jervis.

ODD FELLOWS CLAM BAKE.

What May Be Expected at Midway Park.

Mr. Jacob Gunther, who will provide the clam bake for the Odd Fellows, Tuesday, has purchased 40,000 clams, 275 pounds of blue fish, 450 pounds of chickens, five barrels of sweet potatoes, 110 water melons and all the other necessities for a first class bake.

He has also made the necessary arrangements for the serving of the bake promptly on time, a very important consideration.

A VETERAN'S VERDICT.

The War is Over. A Well-known Soldier, Correspondent and Journalist Makes a Disclosure.

Indiana contributed her thousands of brave soldiers to the war, and no state bears a better record in that respect than it does. In literature it is rapidly acquiring an available place. In war and literature, William Yewell, well known as a writer as "Sol," has won an honorable position. During the late war he was a member of Co. M, 24th N. Y. Cavalry and of the 15th Indiana Infantry Volunteers. Regarding an important circumstance he writes as follows:

"Several of us old veterans here are using Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, Heart Cure and Nerve and Liver Pills, all of them giving splendid satisfaction. In fact, we have never used remedies that compare with them. Of the Pills we must say they are the best combination of the qualities required in a preparation of that nature we have ever known. We have none but words of praise for them. They are the outgrowth of a new principle in medicine, and tone up the system wonderfully. We say to all, try these remedies."

—William Yewell, Marion Ind., Dec. 7, 1892.

These remedies are sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent direct by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, 21 per bottle, six bottles $3, express prepaid. They positively contain neither opiates nor dangerous drugs.

DREAM TRYST.

The breaths of kissing night and day
Were mingled in the eastern heaven.
Throbbing with the heart's desire,
Shook layers all its star-chest seven
When dusk shrank, cold and light trod shy,
And dawn's gray eyes were troubled gray
And souls went palely up the sky
And mine to Lizzie.

There was no change in her sweet eyes
Since last I saw the sweet eyes shine;
There was no change in her deep heart
Since last that deep heart knocked at mine.
Her eyes were dim, her cheeks were pale,
Where a girl ever came and go,
The sparkle of the mountain drops
From her sweet soul below.

The chambers in the house of dreams
Are red with so divine an air
That Time's hoar wings grow young therein,
And they who walk there are most fair.
I joyed for one, I joyed for her,
Who with the past meet girt about,
Where our last kiss still warms the air,
Nor can her eyes go out.

—Francis Thompson.

ENGLISH BIRDS OF SONG.

The List Includes Some Twenty-five, With the Nightingale First.

In round numbers the chief song birds of England amount to about 25, among which the nightingale reigns chief and supreme. It is almost impossible to frame any accurate table of the comparative beauty and merit of these varied and happy songsters, but the attempt has been made by an earnest student of nature, who devoted many years to this one express subject, and some of his notes are of curious interest.

At the head of the whole list stands the sweet bird of night for mellowness of tone, compass and execution and an inborn plaintiveness of melody which is almost wholly his own. Pre-eminent, too, among the beauties of its strain is its infinite variety, as many as 16 different beginnings and closes having been noted in the song of a single bird. Beginning, like many a famous master of eloquence, in a sound of infinite and tender softness, he gradually breaks into deeper and fuller expression, reserving all his strength as if for some sudden touches of passion and delight, and then dying away into a fine and delicate thread of such exquisite and keen sweetness as to pierce the very heart. In the calm stillness of a summer evening this dainty note may be heard through half a mile of silent, listening woodland. Next to the nightingale come the three happy singers—the skylark, woodlark and titlark—each having a special excellence of his own, the two latter singing both while on the wing and when at rest, their song being full of sweetness, variety and swift changes, and the first surpassing even the nightingale in the rapid snatches of sprightly joy with which he rises up toward the blue ether—

And, ever rising, wins his liquid way. Then follow the whole throng of finches, headed by the linnet, who stands fifth on the entire list and carries off (in these days of competitive examination) 74 marks out of a possible 100 for compass, execution, sprightliness, plaintiveness and mellow tone. Far lower down on the list come the better known and more popular methodists, the blackbird, the thrush and the white throat, the reed warblers and the robin—who, by the way, during the silent autumnal days deserves a whole column to himself. To these, however, must be added the blackcap, who, for beauty, power and flute-like brilliancy of song, exceeds all other of these happy minstrel but the nightingale himself.—Quiver.

No Use For Ghosts.

A young gentleman who lately left his father's house, having exhausted his credit, telegraphed the other day to his parents: "Your son Walter was killed this morning by a falling chimney. What shall we do with the remains?" In reply a check was sent for $200, with the request, "bury them." The young gentleman pocketed the money and had an elaborate speech. By and by he sent his father the following note:

I have just learned that an infamous scoundrel named Baker sent you a fictitious account of my death and swindled you out of $200. He also borrowed a $100 note from you and left the country. I write to inform you that I am still alive and long to see the paralytic old man. I am in a somewhat reduced circumstance, the accumulations of the last five years having been lost in a disastrous stock speculation, and if you would oblige me $200 I would ever be thankful to your favor. Give my love to all.

A few days later the cunning youth received the following dignified letter from his outraged parents:

My dear son, I have turned you once, and that is the end of it. I decline to have any transactions with a ghost. Yours in the flesh, —Spure Moments.

How a Snail Breathes.

The breathing operation in a snail is one of the queerest processes imaginable and is carried on without the least semblance of lungs. The orifice through which he takes his supply of "the breath of life" is of course called the mouth, notwithstanding that it is situated in the side of his great suckerlike foot. The process of breathing is not carried on with anything like regularity, as it is in most creatures, the mouth simply opening occasionally to let in a supply of fresh air, which is expelled by the same opening as soon as the oxygen has been exhausted. The snail's peculiar mouth is provided with a tongue set with hundreds of fine teeth. —St. Louis Republic.

A Historical Widow.

Cleopatra was a widow, having poisoned her husband. She was the cause of not a little discord in the families of both Caesar and Antony. The former took her to Rome with him, but the people sympathized so strongly with the dictator's wife that he was obliged to send the Egyptian queen back to her own country. Antony gladly ruined himself for her sake. Cleopatra was a blond, with a complexion like ivory, yellow hair and blue eyes.—Philadelphia Times.

CASTORIA

Castoria is Dr. Samuel Pitcher's prescription for Infants and Children. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrups, and Castor Oil. It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria destroys Worms and allays feverishness. Castoria prevents vomiting Sour Curd, cures Diarrhoea and Wind Colic. Castoria relieves teething troubles, cures constipation and flatulency. Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. Castoria is the Children's Panacea—the Mother's Friend.

Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."

Dr. G. C. Osmond,
Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

Dr. J. F. Kitchener,
Conway, Ark.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."

H. A. Archer, M. D.,
111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

HE HAD REMORSE.

But All His Eloquence Was Without Avail and He Had to Go.

"You've heard of that feeling called remorse, I presume?" he queried as he entered the Gratiot Avenue police station the other night and came to a sudden halt before the sergeant's desk.

The officer looked up and gave him a brief survey, but didn't say anything. "I have carried it in my bosom for 15 years now," whispered the stranger, "and must get rid of it at any cost. Remorse! It is a wolf gnawing at the vitals; it is a flame burning into the soul! I thought I could carry the secret to my grave, but the torture is too great."

The sergeant raised his eyebrows in an inquiring way, but made no inquiries.

"Half an hour ago I was on the point of leaving for Canada, but remorse held me in its chains. As I walked about a voice whispered to me: 'Why endure this torment longer? They can only hang you at the worst. You had better be dead than suffering in this way. Go to the police station and give yourself up and take your punishment like a man! That's what the voice said, and I am here.'"

The sergeant ought to have been startled, but he didn't even look surprised.

"You know where Dubuque is, of course," resumed the stranger. "Look me up and telegraph to the police of Dubuque that the bloody mystery has at last been solved."

The sergeant looked at him, or over his head, and drummed on the desk.

"Yes, I killed him. He had wronged me, and I thirsted for his blood. I was reckless, and yet no one saw me strike him down. They found the body, but not the murderer. Even a reward of $1,000 could produce no clue. I shall plead guilty and relate the full particulars. I suppose you'll give me a good meal before locking me up."

The sergeant looked all around for his blotting pad and finally found it on the floor. He groveled out something, but it was not for the murderer.

"I hope you'll telegraph at once and have it over with," said the stranger as he leaned forward and put on a look of entreaty. "Suspense is almost as bad as remorse. I feel 50 per cent better already, but I want the whole thing off."

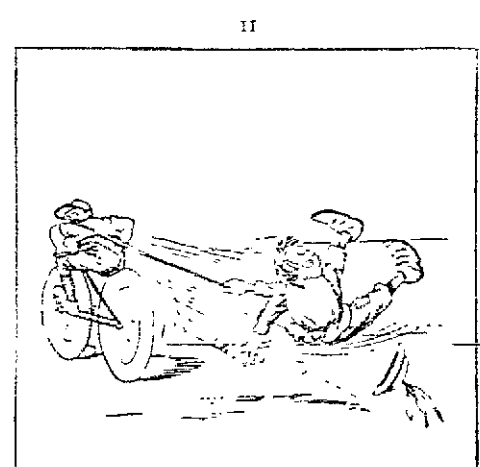

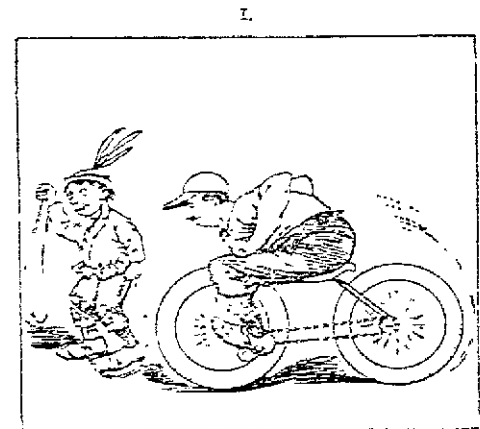

"Hey, Tom!" called the sergeant to the doorman, who was at work in the corridor.

"Yes, sir."

"Throw this old bum outdoors, and throw him hard."

And the old bum was cast out into the shadowy night and given a boost to help him go hence.—Detroit Free Press.

STATE OF NEW YORK.

Office of the Secretary of State, ALBANY, AUGUST 4, 1894.

Pursuant to the provisions of section seven, chapter six hundred and eighty, Laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-two, notice is hereby given that the following proposed amendment to article six of the Constitution of the State of New York will be submitted to the people of the said State, for the purpose of voting thereon at the next general election in the State, to be held on the sixth day of November, eighteen hundred and ninety-four.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION.

Proposing amendment to article six of the Constitution of this State in relation to County Judges and Court of Sessions in the county of Kings.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly do enact as follows:

Whereas, At the last session of the Legislature, the following amendment was proposed in the Senate and Assembly, viz:

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That article six of the Constitution of this State, be amended by adding thereto the following section:

"§ 2. There shall be in the county of Kings two county judges, each of whose term of office shall be six years. The county judge in office at the adoption of this amendment shall hold office until the expiration of the term for which he was elected. The county judge to be elected next after the adoption of this amendment, and his term of office shall begin on the first day of January next following the expiration of the term of office of the county judge in office at the adoption of this amendment. The official term of any county judge of said county shall expire by the effluxion of time or the disability of age, the successor of such judge shall be elected at the next general election. Vacancies otherwise occurring in said offices shall be filled in the same manner as vacancies in the Supreme Court. The salary of said county judges shall be as established by law for county judges in said county. Their powers and jurisdiction shall be co-ordinate and co-equal. One or more parts of the county may be held in said county. The court of sessions in the county of Kings is continued with the powers and jurisdiction of the county judges, and with such additional powers and jurisdiction as may be conferred by the Legislature; it must be held by a county judge of the county, and may hold one or more part years."

And whereas, The said proposed amendment was agreed to by a majority of the members of each of the two Houses of the Legislature, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and referred to the Legislature to be chosen at the first day of January next following the expiration of the term of office of the county judge in office at the adoption of this amendment.

And whereas, Such election has taken place and a said proposed amendment was duly published for three months previous to the first day of January next following the expiration of the term of office of the county judge in office at the adoption of this amendment, and the provisions of article thirteen of the Constitution, therefore:

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the Assembly do assent to the proposed amendment.

STATE OF NEW YORK.

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the sixth article of the Constitution be amended by adding thereto the following section:

"§ 30. The Legislature, at the first session thereof after the adoption of this amendment, shall provide for the election at the general election next after the adoption of this amendment, by the electors of the first judicial district, of not more than two justices of the Supreme Court in addition to the justices of that court now in office in said judicial district; by the electors of the second judicial district, of not more than two justices of the Supreme Court in addition to the justices of that court now in office in said judicial district. The justices so respectively elected shall be invested with their offices on the first Monday of January next after their election."
